NOTICE

World Environment Day takes place every year on 5th June. It is the United Nations' flagship day for promoting worldwide awareness and action for the environment. This year, with India as host, World Environment Day is calling on people across the world to help Beat Plastic Pollution. While plastic has many valuable uses, people have become over reliant on single-use or disposable plastic – with severe environmental consequences.

At IEST Shibpur, the World Environment Day 2018 will be celebrated by organising the following programmes on 5th June (Tuesday).

1. Inauguration of the celebration at Netaji Bhavan by the Director, IEST Shibpur and sharing awareness about the World Environment Day (10:00 a.m.)
2. Special campus cleaning by students, staff and cadets of 41 Bengal BN NCC (10:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.)
3. Seminar on the theme: *Beat Plastic Pollution: If you can't reuse it, Refuse it at Alumni Seminar Hall from 4:00 p.m. to 5:15 p.m. with the speakers as under:
 - Presidential address: Prof. Parthasarathi Chakrabarti, Director, IEST, Shibpur.
 - Chief Guest: Dr. Jayanta Bandyopadhyay, former Professor and Head, Centre for Development and Environmental Policy, IIM Calcutta
 - Introduction of the theme: Prof. Anirban Gupta, Head, Centre for Water and Environmental Research.
 - Other Speakers:
 - i) Prof. Souvanic Roy, Head, School of Ecology, Environment and Human Settlement Management,
 - ii) Col. Mukesh Bhavnagar, Commanding Officer, 41 Bengal BNNCC
 - iii) Dr. Dipanjana Maulik, Senior Environment Officer, Department of Environment, Govt. of West Bengal
4. Tree plantation at the campus near Guest House (by the Director-IESTS, guests, students, staff and NCC cadets) (5:30 p.m.).

All students, researchers, faculty members, officers, employees and interested persons are invited to attend the programme and make it a grand success.
