Players may only be interested in the games and promotions on offer, but not all online casinos were created equal. There is a lot more to consider when deciding if a particular provider is a good prospect, or something to be avoided. A key issue is licensing – trustworthy casinos are all licensed and regulated by oversight bodies to guarantee player protection. This applies to both the newest brands in the industry as well as the most experienced casino operators. Unlicensed sites are a no-go, but even those with the right credentials can fall short of the mark.

At the top end of the spectrum are some casinos that deliver on every desirable aspect. Players at these casinos can expect only the best at every turn. Multiple payment providers for smooth financial transactions, helpful customer support agents available day and night, fast and hassle-free payouts after a win, and a user-friendly interface across a range of devices – world-beating casinos must meet all these criteria. Here, in no particular order, are our picks for the top 10 casino brands in the world today.

Since starting out in 2012, the folks at Casumo have made it their mission to provide a unique and exciting playing experience. Players love the clean and simple interface, massive games collection, gamified rewards system, and friendly support team. Many of the slots are from software developer NetEnt, with Casumo providing a near complete library of this acclaimed studio's titles.

Players at Casumo are provided with multiple protections, including regular game audits by the independent organization Technical Systems Testing (TST). The site also holds licenses from five different jurisdictions – the UK, Malta, Sweden, Denmark, and Gibraltar. Not many casino sites can say the same.

LeoVegas claims to be the first online casino to tailor its product primarily to the mobile market. Taking this mobile-first approach certainly paid off, and many providers have since followed suit. This casino offers the full package, including a huge selection of slots, virtual table games including video poker, live dealer tables, and a complete sportsbook.

This is a casino that values transparency, and the results of the regular independent audits are published frequently. LeoVegas has consistently won prestigious industry awards since its inception, including Online Gaming Operator of the Year at the International Gaming Awards in 2021.

Another site that offers an extensive selection of live and virtual casino games, and a comprehensive sportsbook to boot, ComeOn consistently scores highly in player reviews. The site is very easy to use, and the games catalog boasts in excess of a thousand titles. The support team are known for going the extra mile to assist customers with any issues or inquiries.

ComeOn holds licenses from Sweden, Denmark, and Malta, and has also won several prestigious awards in the years that it has been operational. The site supports several different languages and currencies, and welcomes players from around the world.

PlayOJO is that rarest of things, an online casino site with a solid four stars on Trustpilot. The positive player reviews are an indication of how great this site is, and the casino has also been recognized by the industry. This casino tries to do things differently, in particular when it comes to promotions.

In the interest of fairness, PlayOJO has dispensed with the usual bonus structure in favor of free spins with no wagering requirements. At this site, players will never be asked to keep wagering their winnings, and can instead keep any money they gain from free spins. Players can also compete for some cash prizes, which are also free from wagering. This novel offer has proved very popular with players.

SlotWolf is just one of many casino sites run by relative newcomers N1 Interactive Ltd. Incorporated in 2017, N1 Interactive have rapidly released a great number of brands under their umbrella, but the one that stands out above the rest is SlotWolf. This is a Malta-licensed casino that many players have fallen in love with. At one well-known player review site, SlotWolf scores as close to a perfect ten as any casino site will ever get.

SlotWolf is a great site for international players, with a reach across the globe. Players can choose to make transactions in one of eleven currency options, and there are also eleven languages supported.

Betsson is one of the original names in online casino, having been operational for more than two decades. There is a rather long list of restricted countries, but for those lucky enough to be able to access this site there is a lot awaiting them. Betsson has games from every software provider you have ever heard of, and quite a few that you haven't.

Betsson scores highly on trust and transparency, being licensed in Malta and Sweden and subject to public audit. Other popular features are low minimum deposits, fast payouts, multi-language support, and generous and fair bonuses.

For those who want to explore table games as much as slots, Mr Green is a good fit. The casino gaming selection is very diverse, and includes a lot of virtual card and table games as well as live casino. The character of Mr Green takes you through the site, providing a visual hook and a sense of personality – although we feel they may have gone a bit overboard with the backstory.

Since being bought by William Hill in 2019, Mr Green has gone from strength to strength. The site has won close to thirty awards, notably several relating to social and corporate responsibility, and to responsible gambling.

888casino has been around for a quarter of a century, and what the group doesn't know about online casino isn't worth knowing. Players who sign up with 888casino also have access to several sister sites specializing in bingo, poker, sports, and even backgammon. Many of the casino's gaming runs on specially developed proprietary software, and the site has exclusive games in the collection too.

The focus on creating their own tech has been key to the 888casino team's ongoing success. The group is able to offer something that many of their rivals can't – absolutely everything and more all in one place.

Unlike the two previous entries to this list, Rizk is all about the slots. Although the site has branched out to table games, live casino, and sports betting, the core of the offering is still slot games. The site has fun elements of gamification, including the special 'Wheel of Rizk'. This is a wheel of chance that you can spin for wager-free prizes, but to get to that spin you must fill up your power bar by playing games.

Each time you power up and spin the wheel, you progress to the next level. At each level the potential prizes get bigger and better. And, just like PlayAMO, at Rizk all the bonus offers are completely free of wagering requirements.

Last but not least, this legacy brand has come a long way since it started as a bookmaker in Ireland in 1988. The parent company, now known as Flutter Entertainment, is the largest online gambling group in the world, since merging with Betfair and then acquiring the Stars Group.

The Paddy Power casino site is definitely among the best and most trustworthy in the world. Unlike most casino sites, there are no limits on how much you can withdraw in a single transaction or time period.

Finding the best online casinos to play at can be a tough ask in 2022 with the amount of misinformation available. The best online casino sites will depend on your location. This article will teach you everything you need to know about the best casinos online.

Being new to an online casino can be daunting but rest assured with a little guidance you will be playing at the best and safest gambling sites within minutes. Use the quick links to find a good online casino for you:

Casino the in online the best world

The best online casinos in 2022 largely depend on your location and the laws surrounding online gambling in your jurisdiction. The best casinos will cater to multiple currencies, have thousands of real money casino games, responsive customer service and a strong reputation among players.

In 2017 regulated online casinos generated $US50.65 billion in regulated markets with this figure jumping to more than $US55 billion in 2018.

In the United Kingdom alone more than £800 million was gambled in 2014 at casinos and bookmakers, with this figure only including vendors regulated by the UK Gambling Commission. Imagine how much more is wagered at offshore gambling sites and in markets such as Australia where online casino play is heavily restricted.

Many governments around the world do not allow online casinos to be hosted in their countries, but are unable to stop their citizens from gambling at online casinos hosted in regions which allow them.

The casino the online world best in

Some Asian countries deny access to gambling sites via IP blocking, with more governments investigating this option, although it takes great change in legislation for something like this to be pushed through.

England, Scandinavian countries such as Norway and Denmark, Australia, Canada and North America are some of the most lucrative markets for online casinos.

Australians cannot legally play at online casinos any more, although there has never been anyone charged for doing so. Basically it is illegal for offshore gambling sites to market their services to Australians, although many still do flout the rules. The World Gambling List chooses to abide by the regulations in Australia and does not advertise real money offshore online casinos to Australians.

Europe is a huge continent and the online casino landscape varies greatly from country to country. Some countries such as Sweden have regulated the industry themselves, while others receive tax from Maltese- or UK-licensed online casinos. Other countries in Europe are yet to really address online casinos in their laws, which means it's a free for all, and you can play at any online casino. Rest assured there will be plenty of online casinos catering to popular European currencies like EUR, NOK, SEK and the DKK.

The USA is slowly developing into a gambling powerhouse, but the reality is there are very few states with regulated online casinos. If you are in New Jersey or Delaware you will find regulated options, while there is also a regulated poker site in Nevada. However, the other states in the USA do not have regulated online casinos, which means the only option is to play at offshore offerings. The USA gambling landscape is rapidly evolving since the successful repeal of the PASPA ruling, which effectively banned online gambling.

India does not have any regulated online casinos, but there are plenty of great options based overseas. Much like Canada and New Zealand, India does not really address online casinos in its laws. The best online casinos for India are regulated in places such as Malta, Curacao and the United Kingdom. There are even online casinos that cater to the Indian Rupee, offer great local bonus offers and speak dialects of the local language. Gambling in India is very limited at a land-based level, with no legal sports betting and only the floating casinos of Goa as a legal casino gambling destination.

Canada is another country that does not ban offshore casinos, nor does it tax them. This makes Canada one of the key gambling markets targeted by online casinos, with most UK- and Malta-licensed operations accepting players from here. There is the notorious Kahnawake Gaming Commission in Canada, which regulates many online casinos that will accept players from Canada, but these are often shunned in favour of more reputable gaming sites based overseas. Other state governments have sanctioned online casinos, but the fact there are better options based elsewhere has prevented them really gaining much traction. Find out more about the best online casinos for Canada.

The UK is the most developed gambling jurisdiction in the world, with billions of dollars pumped annually through United Kingdom Gambling Commission-sanctioned online casinos. At the tips of UK online casino players fingers are 1000s of real money slots, live casino games, online poker and much much more. Basically anything that is happening in the online gambling world, is happening in Britain. There are more than 1000 licensed gambling sites bearing the UKGC tick of approval, with all having to maintain a high standard of regulation to keep this ticket. Read our guide to the best online casinos for the United Kingdom.

New Zealand citizens are legally able to play at offshore online casinos, with many of the world's best servicing the Kiwis. The best NZ online casinos with over 1500 games (slots, table games, poker etc) and licensing from some great jurisdictions such as the UK and Malta. You will be able to play in the New Zealand dollar and use a huge variety of deposit options, including mainstream NZ options like Paypal, POLi and credit cards. Rest assured that if we are displaying a casino as NZ friendly, it will have strong regulation, plenty of great games from quality providers and 24/7 customer service.

Ireland might be a small nation, but there are plenty of the world's best online casinos accepting players from here. While Ireland falls under the jurisdiction of European countries and uses the Euro, the Northern parts of the country fall under the reign of the UK. The best Irish online casinos are based in places such as Malta and the United Kingdom and feature many of the world's biggest brands. Online casinos readily cater to both the Euro and the Sterling and many cater specifically to Ireland, including home-grown companies like Paddy Power.

Online casinos are banned in South Africa, although some bookmakers have got live casino games available. While there are many online casinos that will accept players from South Africa, these are breaching the laws surrounding gambling in the country. Forms of online gambling that are legal in South Africa include sports betting, horse racing betting, SA live casino, bet games and various lotto pursuits. Interestingly, one of the major online casino companies — Microgaming — has its roots deep in South Africa, although the exact ownership structure is shrouded in mystery.

The online casino industry is diverse but not every country has regulation surrounding online casinos. Rest assured there are plenty of good International online casinos that accept players from right around the world. Even if you are in a country where online casinos are banned there will be an international online casino that will take your bets. Remember, when looking for an International online casino, do your homework and only choose casinos with strong reputations.

There are many things to take into consideration when choosing an online casino. Is it legal to bet at online casinos from your home country? What deposit options are there for people in your region? Is the casino licensed? Do they have the games you want? What is their reputation like? Are there any reports of slow cash-outs? What type of platform are you playing on? In this section of our top online casinos guide we will run you through to steps to successfully gamble online:

As you read above, there are many different laws for online gambling in different nations. If you are unsure about the status of gambling in your country, do some research. It pays to be aware of the rules. You could be in a country with a great regulated gambling industry, so why accidentally play at an offshore online casino.

Most countries are yet to fully address online casinos in their local laws, which means many players can sign up at UK and MGA-licensed casinos. If you are in this boat you should select one of the online casinos in the table above. If you are in a black market, such as Australia, China or many states in the USA, there are options out there for you as well, including casinos powered by Betsoft, RealTime Gaming and many other companies.

Do your research regarding licensing. The worst thing you can do is play at a casino run by shady characters. The best online casinos in certain jurisdictions get the plaudits for a reason: because they are forced to maintain high standards. Read reviews of casinos before playing there. Many online casinos allow you to browse their games before you sign up, which gives a fair idea of what they have to offer. Some casinos will use multiple software providers and have more than 700 games, while others will stick to one platform. For instance, If you're looking for 3D slots it pays to know NetEnt has one of the better selections. Generally the instant-play casinos will use multiple software providers, while there are hundreds of casinos in various jurisdictions which have Microgaming as their provider and have software available for players to use, as long as they are on a Windows PC.

Making an account at your chosen online casino is an easy process. You will need to provide your personal details and it's very important you provide the correct details, because otherwise down the track you may not be able to withdraw winnings from your account. Your name, address, phone number and email address are all things the casino will require.

Best world casino the in online the

This step is not essential, but it is beneficial to your bankroll. Bonus money does come with wagering requirements, meaning you can't just withdraw it, rather you must bet it a certain amount of times before you can turn it into real money. Generally the bonus will come into action at the next step, but it's possible at some casinos you have to opt in. Just read the fine print of the online casino's terms and conditions before you consider taking their bonus.

While you can read plenty about online casino deposits on this page, this is an important step for new players. In short, online casinos cater specifically to many regions around the world and in turn will have suitable deposit options for you to use. Some of the most common found at online casinos include credit and debit cards, Paypal, Neteller and many more.

ou are now able to begin playing at the online casino, which means you have hundreds of real money games at your disposal. Remember to gamble responsibly and abide by the rules in your jurisdiction.

Often the team at the World Gambling List gets asked about the best online casinos in the world. This is obviously a matter of personal opinion, but there are some clear standouts in the gambling industry.

The the best world online in casino

Things we took into consideration when ranking our best online casinos list include the markets they serve — if they don't serve multiple markets we won't include them. They also need strong reputations in the industry and great customer service — those two are a must. We are constantly making changes to our ratings and this list will change from time to time, but our best online casinos in the world as at January 2022 are:

LeoVegas.com is sitting in the top place in our list of best casinos in the world. This company boasts multiple licences and has an outstanding reputation in the industry. It also has some great apps, for both Android and iOS devices in regulated gambling markets. Key markets LeoVegas targets includes the United Kingdom, Canada, New Zealand and many regulated European countries. Read our LeoVegas review for further information.

Guts.com is another UK-licensed online casino that also has other gambling licences. Operating in multiple jurisdictions, including Canada, UK, Sweden, Denmark and New Zealand, Guts Casino Sportsbook is owned by the Gaming Innovation Group — one of the fastest-emerging gambling ownership groups. Games at Guts includes slots, an outstanding live casino and many really unique games such as keno and bingo. More information is available in our Guts review.

Betway.com sits comfortably among the top online gambling sites in the world, as well as boasting an outstanding online betting component. The Betway Casino is powered by Microgaming, which may have been a negative in the past, but now that the software giant is publishing other companies slots games, we rank this casino very highly. Betway Casino has some really nice new player bonus offers and promotions to line your pockets upon sign up, while their reputation among players is unparalleled. Read our Betway Casino review.

Online world casino the in the best

William Hill is one of the most well-known gambling brands on the planet, with over 80 years having passed since William Hill began taking bets. While it's now all about online gambling, William Hill still maintains a bricks-and-mortar presence in places such as the UK and some states in the US. WilliamHill.com, largely through a content agreement with leading software provider Playtech, has an outstanding array of real money casino games, including live games and 100s of the best real money slots available. WilliamHill also has some great apps available for casino players, but these will only be available in some countries. Read our William Hill review for more information.

Mr Green is one of the fastest-emerging online casino companies in the world and it's easy to see why once you have become a member. Mr Green has an outstanding array of games from leading providers like Playtech, Quickspin, Microgaming and NetEnt. Mr Green also has an outstanding selection of both high- and low-limit live tables, with several really unique titles thrown in. Giving more weight to Mr Green being the fourth-best online casino in the world, is that it also boasts a serviceable sportsbook — although if you were to compare its sports offering to that of WilliamHill or another big UK corporate betting site you will probably be disappointed. Read our Mr Green review to find out more.

TempleNile.com is licensed to operate in Malta, the United Kingdom and Sweden, although they are really willing to accept customers from anywhere there has not been a ban on online gambling, which encompasses grey markets such as New Zealand and Canada. Temple Nile Casino has a great selection of casino games from leading providers like Microgaming, but what sets it apart is the fact it has games from upwards of 20 smaller boutique iGaming providers. Temple Nile Casino also has a great VIP rewards program, which can help you get cash and bonuses back, simply for just playing at the casino. If you want to find out more about this casino, read our Temple Nile Casino review.

Royal Vegas Casino has been around upwards of 20 years now, with this Microgaming gambling site one of the most respected on the web. While its management company has changed hands several times (it used to be run by Fortune Lounge), it is now managed by the very capable Buffalo Partners. Royal Vegas is one of our favourite Microgaming-only online casinos and features both their downloadable (Windows) platform and an instant-play interface (which can be used on platforms like Mac). RV stocks all of Microgaming's slots, video poker, casual games and of course the live suite of games, which really is first-rate. If you're looking for a trustworthy online casino Royal Vegas could be for you. Read our Royal Vegas review for further information.

Only launching in the first half of 2019, MrFavorit.com has quickly established itself in the iGaming world. Boasting games from a huge selection of online casino software companies, including Microgaming, iSoftBet and live specialists Evolution Gaming, Mr Favorit is licensed to operate by the Malta Gaming Authority, while it also offers real money games to the UK via third party agreement. These two licences mean the casino can be trusted and is a good option for players based in European countries, Canada and New Zealand, among many others. MrFavorit tends to have some nice promotions running on a weekly basis and in their short history have continually added new games from their plethora of software providers. Read the MrFavorit review for more information.

Jackpot City online casino has been around for longer than we care to remember. A casino powered solely by Microgaming, Jackpot City has a great selection of online slots and table games. This includes a great selection of live games with both high- and low-limit tables available. Run by the same folk as Royal Vegas, Jackpot City is a great option for players in Canada, New Zealand and much of Europe. With these target markets in mind the online casino has then added every conceivable payment method you could want. The fact it has downloadable software for Windows computers, as well as the standard Microgaming app, make Jackpot City one of the best online casinos in the world. Read the review of Jackpot City for more information.

A well-known online casino brand, Betsson Casino has a huge footprint in Europe and has a strong reputation right across the globe. Betsson Casino is powered by several of the industry leading software developers, including Microgaming and Net Entertainment. The online casino also features a strong live casino, with the table limits among the most diverse in the world. If you are looking for a safe online casino, Betsson is probably a good choice, particularly if you are depositing in the EUR, because they have some great promotions surrounding this currency. Betsson Casino review.

We are constantly scouring the gambling industry for new online casinos on the market, and put an emphasis on reviewing them fairly, and updating our reviews after the casinos have been operating for a while. Below we highlight the best new online casinos in 2021:

Fortune Clock Casino launched in January of 2020, and has quickly become a good online casino based out of Curacao. IN its short time online, Fortune Clock has proven to be reliable at paying out winning customers, while their withdrawal times are first-rate. Read our Fortune Clock review for further information.

Casoola Casino is due to be launched in the first quarter of 2020 and shapes as one of the more exciting online casino launches in a while. Managed by the Genesis Casino Group, Casoola Casino will have over 1300 games, including online slots by many of the biggest providers in the industry. Casoola Casino review.

While nothing quite matches the thrill of walking on to the gaming floor at one of Las Vegas's many casinos, the online casino game selection is improving all the time. The selection of live dealer games is a welcome addition and has heralded the true arrival of online casinos. Some of the more prominent games played at the top casinos online include:
