You will be asked to use the exclusive casino bonus within a specific timeframe. The size of the timeframe depends on the nature of your bonus and from casino to casino. Larger bonuses usually need to be used in a shorter time, such as within 24 hours. You have more time when it comes to smaller bonuses, usually around the 7 days, but that should always be checked in principle and in the terms of the online casino.

The value of deposit bonuses is usually linked to the amount of the player's deposit, usually expressed as a certain percentage of the deposited money. This means that the more you deposit the more you get, but there is almost always a specific limit that restricts the total value of the bonus.

Wagering requirements can usually be found under the Bonus Offer at the casino, under the Bonus Terms phrase.

Exclusive bonuses are a great way for online casino players to get great rewards. Bonuses aren't new to the online casino world, but there is a difference between them. Basically - the difference between regular bonuses and exclusive bonuses is the overall value for money. Namely, with an exclusive bonus from some of the top 10 best-rated, online casino players can get the most for their money while investing as little as possible. And, with regular bonus offers, this process is more complicated. Usually, exclusive online casino bonuses at top 10 best sites have some amazing benefits for players, but getting a VIP offer is not very easy.

Yes, no deposit exclusive offers are popular in many casinos. Sometimes, they can include free spins, free cash or free chips for a selected variety of games.

Match deposit bonuses are the most common online casino bonuses, that can be used to play any online casino game for free. If you too have an eye on these, don't forget to keep the following terms that apply to all the match deposit bonuses at this casino site.

Although deposit bonuses might theoretically also be given to existing players (see 'reload bonuses' below), this term is generally used to refer to bonuses given to new players for making their first deposit or a certain number of deposits (e.g. for their first 3 deposits). That's why these bonuses are also called welcome bonuses or sign up bonuses.

Casinos regularly offer bonuses to lure customers. But customers who sign up through our site have one big advantage: they enjoy interesting deals that can only be obtained by signing up with us at the casino of their choice.

Reload bonuses are almost the same as the welcome bonuses mentioned above, with one key difference. While the bonuses mentioned in the previous section are offered to new players, reload bonuses are meant to be used by existing players, i.e. those that have been playing at a casino for some time already. These are given to players by casinos as a loyalty reward, or to motivate them to play again after a period of inactivity.

On the e-registration form, there may be a spot to enter your code. If not, complete the registration process and sign-in to your casino account. From there, you can head to the cashier/banking page. There will typically be a spot to enter the code right there, bearing in mind that you may need to deposit to claim the offer. If there is no such space, but you still need to enter a promo code to claim an offer, you can usually contact customer support and have them trigger it for you.

A cashback bonus gives the players the freedom to play their heart out and say good bye to fear of losing. Exclusive Casino also gives this freedom to the players as a part of the amount they lose will be added back to their accounts. If you are also looking forward to enjoying one of these cashback offers, here are some terms that apply to each of them.

It is also a well-known fact that online casinos often target players from specific regions with these bonus offers. For example, if a casino wants to expand its market to South Africa, they'd be offering exclusive no deposit bonus codes for South African players. Or, if they already are established in Australia and New Zealand but want to get more activity from the players there, they might offer match deposit bonus and free spins offers for these players. Also, sometimes, online casinos might offer currency-specific bonuses - like offering GBP bonuses for UK players. Regardless of the type or variety of bonus, exclusive offers can truly give you a nudge and help you get started and amass more real money winnings with less effort. This is exactly why we make sure to review the best casinos and offer the best promos for our readers.
