To give them their full title, casino apps, or online gambling apps, are specially designed software applications (computer programs) that run on mobile devices. Those can be smartphones or tablets, or even smartwatches. In the case of casino games apps, they run primarily on smartphones and tablets. These apps are fully mobile-optimized for the two most common operating systems – Android and iOS. This means that both Android mobile phones and iPhones can run all the best casino apps. The apps replicate all of the functionalities of the desktop website and, in some cases, improve it with seamless navigation.

If you ask most players, mobile casino apps are the obvious choice. They're better-designed and come with a host of features specific to your device. However, if a casino doesn't have a dedicated mobile app because development is costly, it will definitely have a mobile-optimized website.

Super Slots is generally more focused on serving fans of slots so its mobile casino features many BetSoft and Nucleus Gaming slot games, including Eagle Gold 2, Primal Wilderness, 88 Frenzy Fortunes, Shark Spin, and many others.

One of the best-known casinos in the industry also happens to have one of the best casino slots apps too. The Golden Nugget app is a true golden nugget for slot fans, offering over 1000+ slots and games in New Jersey. It's one of the biggest collections out there, but that's not all you'll be getting. An almost endless list of stunning online slot developers includes Bally, Barcrest, BTG, Greentube (Novomatic), Konami, Lightning Box, NetEnt, and WMS.
